

RAC OUTGOING QSL BUREAU

The RAC Outgoing QSL Bureau provides an outgoing QSL card forwarding service to overseas, and USA Incoming QSL Bureaus.

The service is available to RAC members, RAC affiliated clubs (club call only), and family members.

HERE'S HOW IT WORKS:

A copy of a recent TCA label, or the RAC membership information found on the top line of the label, should accompany each shipment of QSL cards you send. QSL Managers sending cards for their QSL clients should provide proof of RAC membership for themselves.

Acknowledgment of receipt of your QSL cards will only be given if you include a Self-Addressed Stamped Envelope (SASE) with your QSL cards, or provide an email address.

For faster Bureau sorting, cards should have the destination call sign clearly marked on the upper right corner (front or back). If the card is going to a QSL Manager, show the QSL Manager's call sign on upper right corner (front or back).

Finding an appropriate QSL Manager for DX station is essential. Please refer to the Bureau webpage for links to QSL Managers. RAC does not take responsibility for the validity of information on these links.

Sort your QSL cards alphabetically by Bureaus' prefixes. Separate and send inter Canadian QSL cards to the Incoming QSL Bureau. Also separate cards for US continental Bureaus, from Bureaus in US possessions (KH6, KL7, KH2), and outlying areas (KP2, KP4). In addition, continental US cards should be sorted by the number in US call signs. This will make 10 batches, but 4-th area has two Bureaus: Single-letter prefix W4, K4, N4, and two-letter prefixes AB4, WB4, etc). There should be no more than 11 batches of QSL cards for 11 Continental US bureaus. QSL cards for Managers should be sorted in the Mandated QSL Card size is 101x140mm (4" X 5.5") printed on 130 grams/sq. meter stock should be enough for RAC member's, yearly "free allowance" up to 2 kg. All cards larger than 100 X 150 mm (4" X 6") will be folded by the Bureau system. Please refrain from using oversize, undersize, overweight or underweight cards.

The following countries have no Incoming QSL Bureau, so cards cannot be forwarded to these prefixes:
A3, A5, A6, C2, C5, C6, CN, D4, HH, HV, J5, KH1, KH5, KH7K, KH8, KH9, KP1, KP5, P5, PZ, S7, ST, SU, T2, T3, T5, T8, TJ, TL, TN, TT, TU, TY, V3, V4, V6, V7, VP2E, XU, XW, XZ, YA, Z2, ZA, 1Z, 3B, 3C, 3DA, 3W, 3X, 4J, 4W, 5T, 5U, 7O, 7P, 7Q, 8Q, 9L, 9N, 9U, 9X

Cards for Prefixes with no Bureau can be forwarded to a QSL Manager who is located in a country with an Incoming QSL Bureau will receive cards through his own QSL Bureau. Cards confirming contacts with closed-Bureau prefixes will be returned to you via the Provincial Incoming Bureau.

NOTICE TO QSL MANAGERS

QSL Managers must be RAC members (entitled to 2 kg cards for his own call(s)).

QSL cards for portable operation of a RAC member (SV5/VE3EXY/P) count as his own cards (towards his own 2 kg allowance). The same rule applies to change of prefix (eg. VE3EJ to CG3EJ), but does not apply to the special call VC3J for the same license holder. Such special call is subject to $15 + weight surcharge with zero weight allowance.

The QSL client must be a non-Canadian resident using a non-Canadian call, and have a RAC member Canadian QSL Manager to have cards processed via the Outgoing QSL Bureau.

Canadian residents must be full-time RAC members to use the Outgoing QSL Bureau. Any QSL client, using VE QSL Manager, is not entitled for any allowed volume of cards. He/she pays $25 CDN/kg, or part of it no less than 100 grams of weight.

1-100 grams: $2.50
101-200 grams: $5.00
201-300 grams: $7.50...

In addition $15 charge is applied for each client's call All dues are paid in a single mailing sent to RAC Outgoing QSL Bureau with the cards.

New QSL Bureau Surcharges for RAC Members

Effective July, 2011, Outgoing QSL Bureau users exceeding 2 kg per membership year will be surcharged $2.5 / every 100 gr over Annual RAC member's 2 kg cards allowance.

QSL Cards to be mailed to:

NOTE:

It often takes a long time to receive a card through the QSL Bureau system. With the high cost of postage, foreign Radio Amateurs and Amateur Radio societies tend to ship QSL cards in bulk, often only once or twice a year. Please be patient

The RAC National Incoming QSL Bureau

Member societies of the International Radio Union (IARU) operate a world wide system of QSL Bureaus. Radio Amateurs of Canada, as the Canadian member-society, operates a National Incoming Bureau, National Outgoing QSL Bureau and forwards cards to the twelve Canadian call areas. Cards received by the National Incoming forwarded to the Bureau in each VE call area.

The National Incoming Bureau address is:

* These bureaus are transitioning to Method B. Method B is preferred.

Letters A, B, C and D below, indicate the method that each Bureau uses to distribute cards to amateurs in the various call areas.

Method A: - Envelopes

Send the bureau in your call area a quantity of 5 by 7.5 self addressed envelopes.

On the top left corner of each envelope, print your call sign.

On the top right corner of each envelope, place enough postage to permit the bureau to mail 50 grams of cards. Please note that all bureaus offering Method A now prefer Method B.

Method B: - Credits

Send the bureau in your call area $5.00 and your name, call sign and address.

The bureau will mail you cards, charging the cost of envelopes and postage against the $5.00 credit.

You will be informed when you should send more money.

Method C: - Combination

Send the Bureau in your call area $5.00 and self addressed envelopes.

Do not place postage on the envelopes.

You will be informed when you should send more money or envelopes.

Please note that all bureaus offering Method C now prefer Method B.

Method D: - Credits with labels

Send the Bureau in your call area $5.00 together with a supply of self-addressed adhesive labels with print large enough for use on envelopes.

You will be informed when you should send more money or labels.

RADIO AMATEURS OF CANADA INC.

Radio Amateurs of Canada Inc. (RAC) is the National organization for radio amateurs licensed by Industry Canada (IC).

RAC is organized for the promotion of Amateur Radio communications and experimentation, for the establishment of Amateur Radio networks capable of providing communications in the event of disasters and other emergencies, and for the representation of Canadian Radio Amateurs, nationally to Industry Canada and other government agencies, and internationally as the Canadian member society of the International Amateur Radio Union (IARU).

RAC is incorporated as a non-share capital corporation under the Canada Corporations Act. RAC is governed by a seven person Board of Directors elected on a regional basis by the RAC membership. Although the only essential qualification for RAC membership is a genuine interest in Amateur Radio, full voting membership is granted only to licensed Canadian Amateurs.

Membership in RAC includes a subscription to The Canadian Amateur radio magazine. Membership inquiries and general correspondence should be directed to:
